JUROR: Bob Burridge is an internationally acclaimed artist who works and lives in Arroyo Grande, California. His fresh, loose style of painting conveys a feeling of joyous energy, freedom and movement, and his artwork is held in collections internationally. In his first life, Bob pursued a career as an Industrial Designer. After 20 years of innovation and professional success (see his website for more about his amazing accomplishments) he retired from his day job and followed his heart to become a full time, professional artist. Today, 25 years later, Bob Burridge has achieved exceptional artistic success. He paints every day, teaches workshops across the US and internationally and has been invited to jury dozens of painting competitions. Bob has written and published two books on painting; produced and starred in five teaching videos; and is a contributing writer for various art magazines, periodicals and newsletters. A signature member with the International Society of Acrylic Painters, Bob was recently selected as the Honorary President. He is also a signature member of the Philadelphia Watercolor Society. A popular instructor, his insights are inspirational and his sense of humor is legendary. Please visit his website: www.robertburridge.com
